SECTION 2: RESOLUTION PLAN (REQUIRED)

I want to: (Please check the option that applies)

Keep the property – Retaining the property requires bringing the account current through one of several options. The account will be evaluated for all eligible options from the list below:

A modification which includes adding the past due interest and other advances to the unpaid principal balance and adjusting the account terms and/or payment amount,

A payment deferral which brings the account current by deferring the payment of past due principal and interest amounts until the account is paid off or matures,

A repayment plan which brings the account current by adding a portion of the past due amount to the monthly payment for a period of up to 12 months, or

An unemployment forbearance plan which requires monthly payments based on a percentage of the monthly benefit amount being received for a period of up to 6 months followed by either a reinstatement of the account or evaluation for other home retention options.

Sell the Property – Selling the property for less than the payoff amount is commonly referred to as a Short Sale.

Negotiate the Payoff – Paying off the account, through a refinance or other funds, for less than the payoff amount due is commonly referred to as a Short Payoff.

Surrender the property – Relinquishing the property and signing the deed to the owner of the account is commonly referred to as a Deed-in-Lieu of Foreclosure.

NOTICE TO BORROWERS

Beware of Foreclosure Rescue Scams. Help is FREE!

- There is never a fee to get assistance or information about Foreclosure Prevention Programs from your lender.
- Beware of any person or organization that asks you to pay a fee in exchange for housing counseling services or modification of a delinquent account.
- Beware of anyone who says they can "save" your home if you sign or transfer over the deed to your house. Do not sign over the deed to your property to any organization or individual unless you are working directly with your mortgage company to forgive your debt.
- Never make your mortgage payments to anyone other than your mortgage company without their approval.
